

Calling all young composers!

To compose: to create something new

TO compose: to write a piece for Thornbury Orchestra!

Thornbury Orchestra (TO) in South Gloucestershire invites young musicians from secondary and further education and beyond to enter its composition competition.

Write a five minute piece for our symphony orchestra for the chance to see it performed and win a prize of up to £500!

Entries must be received by the end of November 2010.

For further information and competition rules please see the Music Co-ordinator of your school or college, or contact:
